Belgium is delighted in having an excellent view of Germany's coat tails.

The Huns say that they have committed no atrocities. Just what is an atrocity?

The weather this fall has been even a better fuel saver than Dr. Garfield's regulations.

It looks as if Austria would be neatly carved up in separate pieces by the Allies' big knife.

The young man and the two-pound box of chocolates are for the present only fond memories in a girl's life.

We certainly did "lend" as they fight—with a sweeping rush that carried us to our goal and beyond.

After some difficulty Santa Claus procured his passports to France but the size of his pack is very carefully prescribed.

Be thankful for Food Administrator Hoover and Fuel Administrator Garfield. Their edicts make life varied and interesting.

The fight goes on and no one yet makes a guess when cold weather will stop the first American army; the Germans will not stop it.

A war tax of one cent on each purchase of an amount between twenty cents and a dollar will hurt nobody and help the government.

The prudent man takes advantage of beautiful autumn weather to put up his double windows and look to the condition of his snow shovel.

The cost of the 2,000,000 gallons of gasoline saved by gasless Sundays probably went into Liberty Bonds. It is a poor government ruling which won't work both ways.

The latest addition to the flags of nations is the standard of the new Siberian Republic. It is plain white and green, symbolizing the country's snowfields and its virgin forests.

Had the Huns accepted the fourteen points which President Wilson offered for their consideration last January, there would not be so many American bayonet points against them now.

President Wilson is an excellent correspondent. He makes nothing of getting up any morning and writing a billet doux to Bill. You might however, call his Lusitania note a "Billy, don't."

The practice of burning leaves is not only very unhealthy but wasteful as well. Leaves are nature's fertilizer and if spread over the garden and allowed to remain until spring will greatly enrich the soil.

The health departments have just ceased directing us to "swat the fly", and it is pretty hard to immediately receive their directions to "swat the flu".

Mrs. John Bogie.

How foolish all these kaisers and kings were! They were a surviving medieval feature in a modern age—and if they had only kept quiet they might have endured in comfort and prosperity for some time.

Marshal Foch celebrated his sixty-seventh birthday on October 2nd. According to Dr. Osier he should have been in the scrap heap some time ago. But do any of us think we could spare Marshal Foch to the scrap heap?

A New York firm has declined to accept a consignment of German toys bought in 1914 for Christmas trade this year. Breaking toys in America for the enrichment of German manufacturers is to be abandoned.

Experience has taught us that we are unlikely to get the thing we most desire. The Czechs-Slovaks are more fortunate than most of us. They have always wanted self-government, and it looks as if they were going to get it.

German propaganda is at work in Brazil to injure the trade between that country and the United States. It was learned recently that German agents had promised to sell cotton goods to Brazil merchants at pre-war prices.

It looks as if after the war the German nation have an ex-kaiser and six princes royal on its hands. There should be no difficulty in providing for their living, however. Industrial and agricultural workers will be in great demand.

Ambassador Morgenthau's story of the conduct of the Turks as allies of the Germans is a plain recital of facts which the American Embassy was able to discover and assemble while Turkey tried to suppress the news of the ordered wholesale atrocities.

Buyers of Liberty Bonds are urged to hold them. Don't let some slick guy talk you into trading them for stock in "Get rich quick" concerns. They are better than gold for they draw interest each six months and gold does not. After the war they will sell at a premium.

Public anxiety over the solvency of the empire apparently is becoming acute in Germany. The hoarding of money has become so rampant as to cause great inconvenience. There has been a general run on banks to close accounts and the theft of hidden funds is of daily occurrence.

The fire is out under the preserving kettle and no more permits for sugar for preserving purposes will be issued by the Food Administrator. Become accustomed to doing with a little less sugar and you will have no difficulty getting along on the allowance of two pounds per month per person. FURS! FURS!

On display and sale Friday and Saturday only at Mrs. Rella Francis' Millinery Store, Lancaster, Ky. You are cordially invited to attend and inspect the grand display and sale of the most fashionable furs of the season. $8,000 worth of high grade seasonable furs, all in drummers' samples, from the Montreal Fur Company, must be sacrificed regardless of cost or value, to avoid returning samples to headquarters. Ladies' coats, Russian mink, marmott coats, ladies' and misses' fur sets, scarfs or separate muffs of Hudson seal, fox, marten, mink, wolf, lynx, kolinsky. Great variety of styles, shapes and colors. Without doubt the largest display ever seen in Lancaster. Take advantage of this most timely opportunity and secure the highest grade furs at a saving of 50 per cent below present market prices. Remember these are all drummers' samples, no duplicates to be had of any closed out pieces.

On sale and display Friday and Saturday only, November 1st and 2d. The sooner you come the larger the selection. Bear in mind the date and place. Representatives of the Montreal Fur Co., will be pleased to show you these samples whether you buy or not.

A few men's sample fur lined coats to be closed out at about one-half of regular retail value.

Turkey Ready to Quit.

Turkey has independently presented peace negotiations to the entente nations, according to a report from Constantinople forwarded by the correspondent at Copenhagen of the Exchange Telegraph Company. The negotiations are expected to end soon, it is added.

Lid On Last Monday.

Drastic measures were taken by the County Board of Health last Monday and it ordered that every business house in Lancaster be closed for that day, it being the regular county court day and many people were expected to town. The measure was taken to check the spread of the influenza, which has been quite prevalent throughout the county for the past two weeks. Physicians say that the epidemic has been checked now and that the crisis has been passed. Every store, bank, restaurant and hotel was closed last Monday in obedience to the order of the Board of Health.

New Produce Firm.

The Garrard and Lincoln Produce Company is the style of the new firm which recently purchased the poultry and produce business of H. B. Northcott, mention of which was made in our last issue. It will be very gratifying to his friends to know that Mr. Lee Hagan will be the local manager for this firm. Mr. Hagan has been with Mr. Northcott for a number of years and knows the business from top to bottom. He will be glad to see his old friends at the old stand where he will give them the highest market price for all their country produce.

Minimum Price

For Hogs.

A minimum of prices of hogs for November has been fixed at $17.50 as the daily average for packers' droves, says a Chicago dispatch. A minimum of $16.50 has been fixed for throw-outs, which consists of hogs under 130 pounds, stags, boars, sows and skips. As packing house products have been selling on a basis of $16.50 for hogs, the announcement of the new basis for November resulted in a big jump of prices for pork, lard and ribs.

Forward League

For Stanley.

The Democratic Forward League has declared for Gov. Stanley for Senator and Dr. A. J. Alexander, of Woodford county, issues the following card to its members:

"To the Democratic Forward League. 'We are at a critical point in the war. Germany is not yet crushed. She still clings to her only hope, a division among the Allies. France, England and Italy are united for completing the task. So is America, but should a majority of the new congress oppose our President politically, it would give the enemy encouragement to prolong her resistance. Let us take no risks in Kentucky. We have won our fight for the national prohibition movement in Kentucky; let us now elect a democratic House and Senate and rob the kaiser of his last hope.'
"A. J. A. ALEXANDER."

Notice To All Registrants In Class One.

Held For General Or Limited Military Service.

By Special order No. 235 of Secretary of War thru Chief of Staff, the Motor Transport Corps is authorized to induct volunteers into that branch of the service.

"All men in Class 1, Section A, can volunteer for this service, if they are physically fit; limited or special service men, rejected on account of flat feet, broken arches, or minor defects, are eligible; the latter class must have their induction papers accompanied by copy of physicians certificate of examination."

Any registrant desiring to enlist in this service should notify this Board immediately.

Captain E. E. Barclay, Commanding Operation Branch, Motor Transport Corps, Port of Embarkation, Newport News, Va. This special Order is only for a limited time and registrants are urged to act at once.

Local Board For Garrard Co. Lancaster, Ky.

On Government Job.

Mr. C. D. McCarthy, our local plumber who has the contract for the heating and plumbing on the new government building, is now on the job which will keep him busy for some time.

There never was a better workman than "Mac" and we know the job will meet the government specifications without a single blue mark against him.

United War

Work Campaign.

Garrard County will subscribe its Quota. But everyone MUST do his and her DUTY.

On account of the "flu" public speaking had to be abandoned, and also has interfered with organizing the county—so much the more reason for volunteer subscription.

Books will be prepared and every person will be asked to Register whether he gives or not.

Give what you feel you can give, then double it.

While small contributions will be thankfully received—a large number of large contributions will be necessary. We want not less than fifty $100. contributions.

The war is not over—our soldier boys need this help. COMMITTEES WILL BE AT ALL POLLS IN VOTING PRECINCTS, ELECTION DAY. BE PREPARED TO GIVE.

G. B. Swinebroad, County Chm.

Garrard's Part

In The Fourth Liberty Loan.

Since Garrard county has done so nobly in raising more than her quota of the Fourth Liberty Loan, the following figures will be interesting reading. The total number of subscribers in the county to the last Liberty Loan were 1134. The apportionment allotted to Garrard county was $229,400. The total amount raised was $250,500, making an over-subscription of $21,100. With 1134 subscribers, it means an average of nearly $225 for each subscriber.

Chairman B. F. Hudson made the following report of the work done through the various banks of the county and is as follows:

"J. W. Stoll, Chairman, Lexington, Kentucky.

Report of Garrard county of bonds subscribed for the Fourth Liberty Loan by banks:

Peoples Bank, Paint Lick, 250 subscribers,—$42,000.

Bryantville Bank, 132 subscribers,—$33,000.

National Bank, 255 subscribers,—$58,500.

Garrard Bank and Trust Co., 225 subscribers,—$50,000.

Citizens National Bank, 272 subscribers,—$67,000.

Total 1134 subscribers, $250,500.

AUSTRIA ASKS For Separate Peace. Text of Note.

Austria-Hungary, through her new Foreign Minister, Count Andrássy, has sent a note to Secretary of State Lansing requesting the Secretary's intervention with President Wilson for an immediate armistice on all fronts and for the commencement of peace negotiations.

The note says:

"Immediately after having taken direction of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and after the dispatch of the official answer to your note of October 18, 1918, by which you were able to see that we accept all the points and principles laid down by President Wilson in his various declarations and are in complete accord with the efforts of President Wilson to prevent future wars and to create a league of nations, we have taken peremptory measures, in order that Austrians and Hungarians may be able, according to their own desire and without being in any way hindered, to make a decision as to their future organization and to rule it.

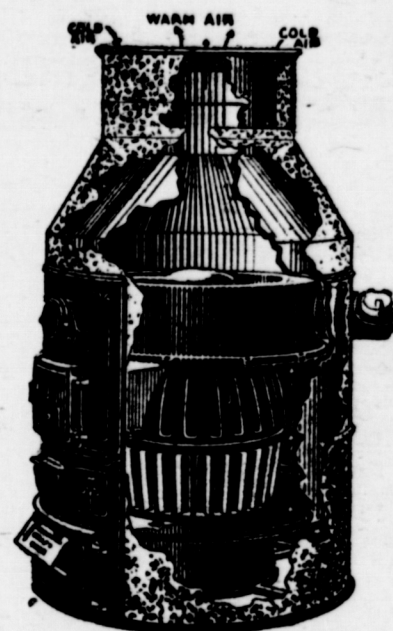

"Since the accession to power of Emperor King Charles his immovable purpose has been to bring an end to the war. More than ever this is the desire of the sovereign of all the Austro-Hungarian peoples, who acknowledge that their future destiny can only be accomplished in a pacific world, by being freed from all disturbances, privations and sorrows of war.

"This is why I address you directly, Mr. Secretary of State, praying that you will have the goodness to intervene with the President of the United States in order that in the interest of humanity, as in the interest of all those who live in Austria-Hungary, an immediate armistice may be concluded on all fronts and for an overture that immediate negotiations for peace will follow.

THE ORIGINAL PATENTED PIPELESS FURNACE

This same circulation of the air is taking place through your entire house. The warm air rises to the ceilings and through doors, transoms, stairways and passageways, travels to the further-most corners of every room on each floor. Every time the warm air enters the room it replaces cold air which is sent down to the Caloric to be heated and made pure. This is so simple that it sounds like mere theory, but 50,000 Caloric-heated homes were kept warm ALL OVER last winter, when old style furnaces and stoves caused parlors and spare rooms to be shut off, to keep the rest of the house warm. We KNOW that the Caloric makes good. It has been used by enthusiastic owners for years, heating homes thru-out, and saving many dollars on fuel bills.

Bracher.

After an illness of about ten days, John Bracher died at his home on Stanford street last Saturday night of pneumonia. He was taken first with influenza, which later developed into pneumonia. Several of the family have been quite sick but are now improving.

Young Bracher was just 21 years old, but leaves a wife and one child. He had been working on the railroad for several months, before coming to Lancaster he lived near Ottenheim, where he was buried last Sunday afternoon.

Anderson.

Death from pneumonia, preceded by influenza, claimed two children of Mr. Wesley Anderson, who lives near Flatwoods, in the eastern section of the county. McClelland Anderson, aged 20 years succumbed last Saturday afternoon, and his sister, Ethel, aged 18 years died the following morning. They were buried in the same grave at Goshen last Sunday afternoon. There were nine of the family down with the dreaded disease at one time and at this writing another is dangerously ill. The family is in a destitute condition and are receiving financial assistance from the county and neighbors.

Criscillis.

Mrs. Virginia Criscillis, aged 66 years, died at her home on the Richmond pike, last Monday evening at eight o'clock. She was taken with influenza about a week ago, death resulting quickly, when pneumonia developed last Saturday. She was the widow of the late J. C. Criscillis, who died about two years ago. She was a devout member of the Baptist church and was a conscientious, consecrated christian woman, greatly beloved by friends and neighbors. The family have the sincere and heartfelt sympathy of the community, which is extended to them in this hour of grief.

Services were conducted at the home yesterday afternoon, by Rev. Smith, pastor of the church at Corbin, and a relative of the deceased.

Interment followed in the Lancaster cemetery.

Peyton.

On the night of October 26th the Death Angel again entered the home of Mrs. Lou Peyton and called to higher service, Lettie Buiwell Peyton, aged 25 years and 5 months. Only five weeks ago the father of this home answered the summons.

In childhood Lettie received a fall from which she was a sufferer from spinal trouble, and as a result she was never physically very strong; but in that little frail casket of a body lived a soul of magnanimous strength and power.

In the last few months she was office girl in Dr. Amon's office—a place she filled with faithfulness and duty well performed. While there she added scores of friends to her loyal host.

Truly, "To know her was to love her". Her motto was "Others": She was never happier than when serving her friends or rendering service whenever needed. Her cheery happy life will make her loss keenly felt.

In early life she joined the Christian church and lived a consistent member. She leaves besides her mother, one sister, Mrs. Homer Chesnut, and three brothers, O. D. Peyton, L. J. Peyton and T. R. Peyton, all of this city.

All that was mortal of this dear little girl was laid to rest in the family burial grounds at Manse. The profusion of flowers bore mute testimony of the love of her hosts of friends.

CARD OF THANKS.

For the many expressions of sympathy and acts of kindness to us in our recent bereavement we wish to sincerely thank our many friends.

Mrs. Lou Peyton and family.

CARD OF THANKS.

I desire to thank the good people of Lancaster, who were so kind to John Bracher and family, during his illness and at his death, and assure them that such kindness will not be forgotten.
James Oldham, Ottenheim, Ky.

Wilson Wants Stanley

And a Democratic Congress

ELECT MEN WHO WILL FIGHT THE KAISER, NOT WILSON—
SUPPORTERS, NOT CRITICS

STANLEY STANDS WITH WILSON
IN PEACE AS WELL AS IN WAR

EMINENT MINISTERS INDORSE
STANLEY FOR SENATOR

All Other Issues Must Give Way, Says Dr. W.
W. Landrum, One of Louisville's Foremost Temperance Advocates.

"I earnestly desire the election of Governor Stanley to the United States Senate."

WOODROW WILSON

WILSON WANTS STANLEY TO HELP HIM WIN THE WAR

Wilson Wants a Democratic Senate To Conclude An Early and Victorious Peace.

Wilson Wants a Democratic Congress To Aid Him In Bringing the Boys Back Home.

Supported by a Senate in thorough accord with his wise policies and lofty ideas, Woodrow Wilson will speedily bring peace and order to a distracted world. This glorious day will be delayed if he and his party are repudiated at the polls and Lodge and Penrose and their faithful follower, Dr. Bruner, are permitted to heckle and harass him. Every day's unnecessary continuance of this struggle means the loss of precious lives, means weary hours of waiting for the return of our loved ones.

Support Wilson, his party and his followers for the sake of our brave boys abroad; indorse him for the sake of their loved ones at home. Gladden the great heart of the first citizen of the world by a vote of confidence on November 5.

Stanley Indorsed By Labor

It is my most earnest wish that Mr. Stanley may continue to serve all of the people of the nation, and particularly the wage earners as an official representative in public office.
Fraternally yours, SAMUEL GOMPERS,
President American Federation of Labor.

October 11, 1918.

Dear Brother:

Grace, mercy and peace be with these.

In a Louisville morning paper I read to-day a report of a certain resolution said to have been passed by the Western Baptist Association.
The title of the paper's report is "Vote as You Pray."

All Baptists should vote as they pray. Just now the burden of our prayer should be that the world may be made safe for democracy. Lloyd George, premier of Great Britain, as you know, the most distinguished Baptist in the world, wrote Mr. Coleman, president of the Northern Baptist Convention: "Tell the Baptist brotherhood that we are fighting for Baptist principles."

Baptist principles are democratic principles. Democratic principles are to-day in the hands of the hands of the Democratic party. A Democratic President is the mouthpiece of that party. His word will close the war and determine matters after the war. Behind him every lover of democratic principles should stand today.

I am a prohibitionist, but prohibition is res adjudicata. The Kentucky

Legislature has passed the prohibition amendment. Congress has voted us a dry nation. National prohibition is as dead an issue as slavery or free silver.

The one great issue is the winning of the war and the settlement of the momentous questions arising after the war. Those questions must be settled by the party that always sustains the President.

I believe our brother Gatliffe voted as he prayed when he voted to nominate Gov. Stanley for Senator. I believe Senator Frost spoke as he prayed when he introduced Gov. Stanley along with Senator Beckham. I believe Hon. H. V. McChesney votes as he prays when he supports Gov. Stanley for Senator. I know of no more conscientious Baptists in Kentucky.
And there are others.

With malice towards none and with charity for all, insisting as we do on Baptist individualism and conscientiousness, I am willing to place myself among those of our brotherhood who believe that this is the time for all men to be sure they are in perfect accord with our President. Gov.
Stanley is such a man and the President can rely on him during and after the war.

With all good wishes and high regards fraternally yours for democratic principles in both church and State.

Cadiz Minister Exposes Campaign Canard

Cadiz, Ky., Oct. 22, 1918.
My attention has been called to a statement in the Louisville press that all six preachers in our town were opposed to the election of Stanley as Senator. The author of that pronouncement had never consulted me. I am not a Democrat in politics, and am not now interested one hair's breadth in the partisan phases of this campaign. But my sober judgment of the issues involved compel me to favor the election of Mr. Stanley in preference to Mr. Bruner. Certain Baptist Associations in Western Kentucky have seen fit in the exercises of their inalienable right to urge our people to vote against Mr. Stanley, but to that advice I cannot consent.

The Prohibition question is a negligible matter in this campaign. That issue has reached such a stage that no matter which man is elected, his vote will fall on the right side. Mr. Stanley's personal habits—past or present—do not determine on which side his vote will be cast. When nation-wide probihibition comes to a vote, good sense and good politics will put Stanley on the prohibition side. But, were his vote known to be against nation-wide prohibition, I should still emphatically favor his election.

The support of the President in the prosecution of this war is also a secondary matter. Both Mr. Bruner and Mr. Stanley can be depended upon to fight this war through to a finish. In the present fever-heat of American patriotism, it would not be good sense or good politics for a Senator not to do so.
Were the patriotic prosecution of this war the issue between these two men, I would not turn my hand over for the difference between them.

The issue in this campaign is greater and more vital than either of the things named. That issue is this: Shall certain definite ideals of social, economic and political justice for the world be realized? For the first time in many years we seem to have a President whose thinking is as clear and thorough as his purpose is positive and unshakable. Thinkers and idealists to whom this era of justice has been a pleasant dream, and who have been somewhat skeptical of all politicians and their promises (even of Wilson at the outset) are now confident that they have as a President a man whose thought moves on as lofty a pitch as theirs, and who also has the political acumen to translate those ideals into legislation. OUR CONFIDENCE IS IN WOODROW WILSON. Let me quote from a recent magazine issue:

"Progressive citizens of whatever party have adopted President Wilson as their leader."
The crucial matter in this campaign is not what Stanley or Bruner will do while the war is on, but what they will do when the war is ended. Either man will fight the war through to a finish—it would be his finish if he did not. But, the probabilities are that one man would follow the leadership of his party chieftain and so WHERE WOODROW WILSON IS GOING, while the other man would line up with one of the two sections of the Republican party. It is on that "probability" that I FAVOR WHOLE HEART-EDLY THE ELECTION OF STANLEY AS OUR SENATOR. Wilson has the ideas and the ideals; he needs now the chance to put them into law. I am for giving him the MAN HE WANTS so that full responsibility can be thrust on him for any failure, if there is failure.

To my mind these vast and world-significant matters of social justice, of economic right, of political liberty demand with compelling voice that every man who loves his fellow shall vote for Stanley as a Wilson man.

Sincerely, LESLIE L. SANDERS, Pastor First Baptist Church.

During The Spanish-American War,

ROOSEVELT SAID:

"A refusal to sustain the President this year will, in the eyes of Europe, be read as a refusal to sustain the war."

If THEN, Why Not NOW?

BECKHAM BACKS STANLEY

I have left the most pressing and urgent duties at the National Capital and traveled a thousand miles to bring to you this message that your President and his associates are watching with anxious and intense interest the outcome of this election in Kentucky and are hoping that you will not fail to show your appreciation of the splendid work which has been done by giving a vote of confidence on the November election day and electing to the Senate Gov. A. O. Stanley.

SENATOR J. C. W. BECKHAM.

World Will Consider Election of Republican Congress a Repudiation of Wilson
President Says "A Vote For Bruner Is a Vote Against Me."
Democratic Defeat Would Hamper Nation At Critical Time.

"My Fellow Countrymen:

"The Congressional elections are at hand. They occur in the most critical period our country has ever faced or is likely to face in our time. If you have approved of my leadership and wish me to continue to be your unembarrassed spokesman in affairs at home and abroad, I earnestly beg that you will express yourself unmistakably to that effect by returning a Democratic majority to both the Senate and House of Representatives.

"I am your servant and will accept your judgment without cavil, but my power to administer the great trust assigned me by the constitution would be seriously impaired, should your judgment be adverse, and I must frankly tell you so because so many critical issues depend upon your verdict. No scruple of taste must in grim times like these be allowed to stand in the way of speaking the plain truth.

Divided Leadership.

"I have no thought of suggesting that any political party is paramount in matters of patriotism. I feel too deeply the sacrifices which have been made in this war by all our citizens irrespective of party affiliations to harbor such an idea. I mean only that the difficulties and delicacies of our present task are of a sort that make it imperatively necessary that the nation should give its undivided support to the government under a unified leadership and that a Republican Congress would divide the leadership.

Interpretation Abroad.

"The return of a Republican majority to either House of the Congress would, moreover, be interpretative on the other side of the water as a repudiation of my leadership. Spokesmen of the Republican party are urging you to elect a Republican Congress in order to back up and support the President, but even if they should in this impose upon some credulous voters on this side of the water, they would impose on no one on the other side. It is well understood there as well as here that the Republican leaders desire not so much to support the President as to control him.

"The people of the Allied countries with whom we are associated against Germany are quite familiar with the significance of elections. They would find it very difficult to believe that the voters of the United States had so chosen to support their President by electing to the Congress a majority controlled by those who are in fact not in sympathy with the attitude and action of the administration.

For Sake of Nation.

"I need not tell you, my fellow countrymen, that I am asking your support not for my own sake or for the sake of a political party, but for the sake of the nation itself in order that its inward unity of purpose may be evident to all the world. In ordinary times I would not feel at liberty to make such an appeal to you.
In ordinary times divided counsels can be endured without permanent hurt to the country. But these are not ordinary times.

"If in these critical days it is your wish to sustain me with undivided minds, I beg that you will say so in a way which it will not be possible to misunderstand either at home or among our associates on the other side of the sea. I submit my difficulties and my hopes to you.

"WOODROW WILSON."

Public Sale

OF

LAND STOCK AND IMPLEMENTS

The heirs and widow of the late George Marshbanks will on Saturday, Nov. 2nd,

at 10 A. M. on the premises sell the farm owned by the deceased and located about 3 miles west of Lancaster, Kentucky, consisting of 68 acres, more or less, of good fertile sandstone land, said farm has on it a residence, and two tobacco barns. This is a dandy little farm and in a high state of cultivation. Same will be offered in two tracts and then as a whole and the highest bid will be accepted.

The terms of sale will be one half cash on Jan. 1st, 1919, when possession will be given, and balance in one and two years with lien retained on land and the deferred payments to draw interest at 6 per cent per annum. Seeding privileges for this year granted to purchaser.

At the same time and place there will be sold the following live stock and farming implements: One cow and calf; one sow and seven pigs; one hillside plow; one land plow; two double shovel plows; one land roller; one cultivator; one grind stone; One half barrel roof paint; Five squares of rubber roofing; two bales of shingles; some plow gear and harness; one mowing machine and hay rake. Other things too numerous to mention.

PROCLAMATION

TO THE PEOPLE OF KENTUCKY.
GREETING:

The menace of fire is greater now than ever, and the waste resulting from it entails a more irreparable loss. This is a time for a maximum of production and of conservation, and a minimum of waste. Thousands of tons of precious food stuffs, millions of feet of lumber, homes which can not be reproduced on account of the scarcity of labor, all are destroyed by fire which could, with proper care, have been prevented. It is the duty of every citizen to assist in the prevention of fires and in bettering those conditions which produce them.

I, A. O. Stanley, Governor of this Commonwealth, therefore designate SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1918, as FIRE AND ACCIDENT DAY, and upon this day call upon the people of this Commonwealth to remove from their premises all substances which are liable to produce fire. See that all the heating devices and chimneys are in safe condition. I recommend the closest inspection, especially of store-houses and manufacturing plants, hotels and factories, and call upon the local authorities to give careful attention to fire prevention, fire protection and the prevention of accidents. I ask that fire drills and exercises be held in all public and private schools, and that instructions and lessons be given in Fire Protection and Fire Prevention, and against accidents of every nature.

Given Under My Hand this 19th day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen and in the one hundred and twenty-sixth year of the Commonwealth.

A. O. STANLEY, Governor.
James P. Lewis, Secty of State,
E. Matt Karr, Asst Secty of State.

Fire And Accident Prevention Day
Saturday, November 2nd.

The Honorable A. O. Stanley, Governor of Kentucky, in a proclamation of this date, has designated the SECOND DAY OF NOVEMBER, '18 as FIRE AND ACCIDENT PREVENTION DAY throughout the Commonwealth of Kentucky. In order to co-operate in this good work to the fullest extent, tent, we request and urge that the mayors and officials of our cities, towns and villages throughout the State also issue a proclamation for a general clean-up and fire prevention day on Saturday, November 2.

We appeal to all civic bodies such as Boards of Trade, Chambers of Commerce, Committees on Fire Prevention, Womens Clubs, Housewives, Boy and Girl Scout Organizations, superintendents, principals and teachers of public, private and parochial schools, fire chiefs and members of their departments, and upon every hundred per cent, loyal American to put forth his best effort on this day for the prevention of fires and disease within the Commonwealth of Kentucky. Let us all co-operate in making Kentucky fire, accident and disease proof.

T. B. PANNELL,
State Fire Marshal.

When Preachers Cuss.

Sometime ago at Sandusky two hundred preachers attended the synod of the Reformed Church of America. The usual exercises formed part of the proceedings, which also included prayers for the success of the allied armies and for the overwhelming defeat of Germany.

The prayers were in German. Several arguments may be urged to show that English would have been more appropriate, or French—or even Japanese. But the arguments may be saved; many of the aged ministers could understand no language but their native German.

When venerable preachers feel that they will be trifling with the Almighty if they cuss the Kaiser in a tongue that they can't understand we need entertain no doubt as to their loyalty. Thank Heaven, we have many citizens of German blood, churchmen and laymen both, whose fidelity to the land of their adoption stands the acid test, and stands it daily.

The prayer-leader could easily have used English, and those who didn't understand could have signified concurrence by preserving that inert condition of torpid unconsciousness which so often characterizes a prayer meeting. But they wanted to participate more intimately in the festival of malediction against Prussian tyranny. And it is no light matter to repudiate national traditions that have had less than a generation in which to become extinct.

This Is Better Than Laxatives

One NR Tablet Each Night For A Week
Will Correct Your Constipation and Make Constant Dosing Unnecessary.
Says Dr. H. E.

Poor digestion and assimilation mean a poorly nourished body and low vitality. Poor elimination means clogged bowels, indigestion, putrefaction and the formation of noxious gases which are absorbed by the blood and carried through the body.

The result is weakness, headaches, dizziness, coated tongue, inactive liver, bilious attacks, loss of energy, nervousness, poor appetite, impoverished blood, salivary complexion, pruritus, skin disease, and often times serious illness.

Ordinary laxatives, purges and cathartics—salts, oils, calomel and the like—may relieve for a few hours, but real, lasting benefit can only come through use of medicine that tones up and strengthens the digestive as well as the eliminative organs.

Get a box of Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) and take one tablet each night for a week. Relief will follow the very first dose, but a few days will elapse before you feel and realize the full benefit. When you get straightened out and feel just right again you need not take medicine every day—an occasional NR Tablet will then keep your system in good condition and you will always feel your best. Remember, keeping well is easier and cheaper than getting well.

Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) are sold, guaranteed and recommended by your druggist.

Homeseekers.

We have heard much about the proposed reclamation of territorial tracts to provide homesteads for returning soldiers. The voice of approval is loudest, but here and there sounds a note of criticism.

It is not natural that those who have never felt the lure of the farm—much less that of the wilderness—should show more than a lukewarm enthusiasm about the scheme. Agriculture calls for a special combination of qualities, and a colonization even more so. A farmer is as much a specialist these days as a laryngologist, and needs ten times as much versatility. This portentous truth is better appreciated in Lancaster than in the large cities, but it is no longer a secret even there; and many popular centres have contributed quotas of soldiers who will show only a qualified rapture at the prospect of subjugating nature after completing the subjugation of the Hohenzollerns.

But the scheme is just. The draft takes an enormous toll among the farmer boys. Physical strength is the first requirement, and where is it found so uniformly, as among farmers? No human material is so easily adapted to the exactions of army life as the kind that is found on the farm. This is a war of machinery, and the cities contain many kinds of machine-bands; but the experience of most of them is of the narrower kind, whereas the farmer has to be ready for any sort of emergency—from repairing his electric light plant to tinkering his tractor. And when a horse or mule needs doctoring he has the machine-hand tied to a tree.

The robust body and the dextrous hand—these are the merchandise that Uncle Sam is hunting, and where does he find it in such abundance as on the farm?

Since then so heavy a drain is likely to be made upon one class of population, it is only fair that that class should be specially considered in plans of replenishment and readjustment. The program should be framed as to meet the needs of the largest number of candidates making claims upon it, and those who by the circumstances of their upbringing are not fitted for a scheme of colonization will be given every chance of adapting themselves to its demands. They will not have very much to learn after their life in camp.

Many thousands will not need to avail themselves at all of its advantages, and the hardy pioneers who do will arrive none too soon to stem the tide of cityward migration which has contributed so much to unwholesome congestion in recent years.

Poultry Raisers Food Administrator Makes Re- quest On Sale of Fowls.

TO THE FARMERS:—

Due to your compliance, by our Government to produce all the poultry possible, wherever it is practicable, we find a very large crop of chickens in the Central, West, South, North and Northwest, with a shortage of labor, shortage of cars for transportation, shortage of freezing space that is being used for freezing meats to be shipped to our soldiers, and Allies abroad, and in order to prevent waste of some of the product, and in order to help out the transportation situation and the freeze problem, we ask your patriotic cooperation to carry on the following suggestions:

1st—Market only well matured birds, leaving the others on the farm to grow and increase the amount of poultry flesh.

2nd—From now until December 1, the larger percentage of old hens are moulting, are unattractive in appearance, weigh less and you should market only those birds that are full feathered—holding the balance until after December 1st.

3rd—Whenever practicable hold as many birds as possible on the farm until after January 1st in order to relieve the freezer situation.

4th—Keep all pullets for egg production this winter and next spring.

5th—East of the Mississippi river market turkeys that are intended for Thanksgiving from November 10th to November 15th, and West of Mississippi from November 8th to November 14th, holding the balance until December 7th, as usually a large percentage of turkeys reaching the market too late for Thanksgiving must be placed in cold storage, room for which this year is unavailable for reasons above stated.

HAVE PATIENCE.

The general tone of President Wilson's replies to the German overtures have caused a slight disappointment in certain circles both here and abroad. The subject of reparation seems to have been carefully left out, and its absence invests the messages with a mildness which has exposed our attitude as a nation to the criticisms of the over-zealous.

These critics have overlooked the real nature of the German proposals. They were a carefully prepared but fairly obvious snare.

The Prussian diplomat hoped for one of two alternatives; the president would either demand reparation to the last penny, or he would agree to an armistice. If he did the former the German government could easily interpret the reply to the masses as a proof of allied rapacity; they could quote the stupendous figures tabulating the Belgian and Serbian indemnities, and with a very little verbal jugglery convince their following that their only hope lay in fighting to the last cartridge. Such an answer would solidify the half-disintegrated elements in German politics.

If the president agreed to an armistice it would not only estrange France and England from us but it would give Germany the respite she needed to establish new lines of defence. Deported France and Belgian captives digging her trenches and making her munitions could be sweated for many weeks while plenipotentiaries asked freak riddles across a table.

Instead, the president has aimed at discrediting the German high command and the oligarchy of Potsdam. The populace are invited to forsake the guidance which gives them military power while it keeps them in quasi-servitude. They are not threatened with indemnities—just yet. Though it is not raised just now there is no doubt about its introduction at the conference. Belgian plenipotentiaries will be there. French representatives—with long memories—will present a few exercises in scientific book keeping. Your Uncle Sam will also find time to rake up a few bygones, and the passenger list of the Lusitania will not be the only document in his portfolio.

Germany may have a place at the conference table—or under it—but she will do most of the listening.

NEXT TUESDAY.

President Wilson has called upon every patriotic Kentuckian to lay down party prejudices and go to the polls on November fifth, next Tuesday and send back to Washington a Congress that will uphold him in the victorious progress being made by our country. The destiny of the nation is now in the hands of the National leader. He calls in a serious hour for your help. It is pointed out that the election of Governor Stanley to the senate and Hon. Harvey Helm to congress is of the greatest importance to this unhampered progress of the war undertakings. Voters are asked to be active in securing those who are entitled to vote at this election to be out and do their duty. There being no public meetings or political speakings in connection with this election on account of the "flu" epidemic many patriotic voters who would help uphold the hands of the President may forget to go to the polls unless some neighbor informs them of the importance of the day. Go and see your neighbor and talk the matter over with him and tell him of the President's appeal and the reasons he should lay aside all prejudices he may formerly have had and vote at this election to send a Democratic congress to Washington. Republican leaders are making a partisan appeal to those who have been affiliated with that party. Nothing would more disturb the conditions now existing than have the enemy nations conceive that our war plans are repudiated at home.

Let every patriotic Kentuckian heed President Wilson's appeal, and go to the polls next Tuesday and vote for Stanley for the Senate and Helm for Congress.

KHAKI COLUMN

The following letter to Mrs. J. W. S. Simpson, is from her son, Private Bailey L. Simpson, who was in training at Camp Stuart, Newport News, Virginia.

"Dear Mother:
I will write you a letter as I have not heard from you since sometime in September. I am going to leave here tomorrow for France, and so don't be uneasy about me for I will take care of myself. Tell Hobart I said 'so long, and that I would get the Kaiser'. Well I will write again as soon as I arrive in France. So take care of yourself. Tell all my friends hello and that I am doing my bit for my country in France.

With love,
Your boy,
Bailey L. Simpson."

The following letter to his mother, Mrs. James Hume, has been received from Private Walter Hume, and will be interesting to his numerous Garrard county friends.

Dear Mother:
I will write you a few lines to let you know that I am well. I am now in France. We were 25 days on the water. I like this country fine and I wouldn't have missed the trip for anything. There are plenty of places for us boys to go at night. We go to the Y. M. C. A. and to the Cavalry Army. We have plenty to eat. I found some things cheaper over here than I thought I would. Tobacco is cheaper than in the States. I can buy as much tobacco here for three cents as I can in the States for ten cents. I have had some of the U. S. money changed for French money and then I had more than before I had it changed as U. S. money is worth more than French money.

I have seen many strange things on my trip. The French people have queer ways of traveling, they all use carts. They call the U. S. the States and it seem strange to me.

I got your letter from Fort Benj. Harrison. Have you heard from Amos yet, if you have be sure and don't forget to give me his address so I can write to him. I am not over forty miles from the front. Everything looks good to me here. Tell Uncle Floyd I am going to write to him. Tell everyone hello for me.

I will close, hoping to hear from you soon.

With much love,
Private Walter L. Hume.

The following interesting letter from Private Thomas K. Price, was written to his sister, Mrs. Hunter Davis.

"Co. M., 360th Infantry, Am. E. F.,
Somewhere in France.

Dear Sister:
I will answer your letter as I have just finished reading it and have nothing else to do. This leaves me well and happy, and hope you are the same. You said you sent me some candy but I haven't gotten it yet. Guess I will get it in a few days, if I don't will let you know. They say they are not going to let the people send things over here Christmas without an order, so I don't know whether I will get the candy or not.

Well sis, you asked me if I had been in the Trenches. Yes, I have been in the trenches about three weeks and we went "over the top".

We only lost twelve out of our Company, and now we are back in reserve for a few days rest. Don't know how long will be here. I didn't get to write any while we were in the trenches so I will try and write every day I can while I am here. We are having some pretty weather here now, but was very muddy and rainy while we were on the front. I have seen several air battles, saw the Americans bring down a Dutch airplane, but it burned up before it hit the ground. We have been under a heavy barrage. There are a few G. I. cans going over now. I can hear them as they go over. G. I. cans are German Shells, they have six inch and eight inch, and different sizes, but all of them has a hum like they were big as a barrel. Some of them are gas shells. I have been in some gas but didn't get enough to hurt me.

I guess I will have to close as it is getting late and we can't have any light as there is danger of having a G. I. can putting it out. You were speaking about sending me some tobacco: you had better wait until I write you again because I don't know whether I could get it or not.

I will close, write soon,
Private Thos K. Price.

"Co. M., 9th Infantry, A. E. F., via New York.
Somewhere in France.

Dear Sister and Brother:
I will write you a few lines today. This leaves me still on the go. I can say I have been "over the top" in actual battle. I guess you have seen in the papers about the big American Drive on Sept. 12th. We sure went through them right. My experience is sure great. We captured several thousand Germans and killed scores. I don't think it will last long at that rate. The American's are sure fighting people. I went over and came back and never got a scratch. Uncle Sam has got "some" soldiers over here and others still coming.

Well, Wade, I have been cutting hair for the boys. I have some hair clippers and a pair of German scissors so I guess I will get rich.

We are having some rain here now, awful muddy. I have a good rain coat. I'm still sleeping on the ground, camping here, there and about. My home is any where I lie down. Hiking is nothing new to me, hike all night some times, as far as 20 kilometers. I get good eats.

I am still with my boy friend from New Mexico. We went over together and came back together. He is a christian fellow, and I am proud of him. We read our Bibles together. I haven't heard from home since I left Camp Shelby. I know you folks have written, guess it has been misplaced some where. I wonder if you all hear from me. I write every chance I have. I haven't received any pay since I've been over here.

I guess boys are scarce around there now. I have met lots of good boys over here from all parts of the world. Tell ma and pa hello for me and to not think too much about my being absent for I am all O. K. and hope to return safely some time.

Well I will close hoping how soon I may hear from you all. So take life easy and don't bother about me. Tell Mayme to write. I will write as often as I can.

Your loving brother,
Everett Sebastian.

Hester.

On Monday morning, Oct. 28th, at 7 o'clock, the Death Angel visited the home of Mr. Zack Hester and took from it their baby boy, Frank Walker, aged 14 years, 1 month and 20 days. He was only ill eight days with Spanish influenza. He leaves a father, four brothers, two sisters, two half sisters and one half brother to mourn the loss of a dear loving boy.

They are: Mrs. Olvin Peyton of Lancaster, James, Robert, Edd and Bettie of Manse, Zack in the training camp at Lexington, and Oscar, with the American Expeditionary Forces, Somewhere in France, Mrs. Major Holmes of Manse, and Mrs. John Colson of Point Leavel.

He was a member of the Presbyterian church at old Paint Lick. Frank was a sweet little boy, kind-hearted always willing to do any thing for any one who asked him, and was loved by all who knew him.

Sad and sudden was the call, I could not realize or understand What they said, When they came and told me he was dead.

A child of his word, honest and fair, A heart full of sympathy, a mind full of cheer, Any task willing to do, from nothing did he shrink, Ever ready for his duty, a lover of work.

After services at the grave by his pastor, Rev. W. M. Eldridge, his body was laid peacefully to rest in old Paint Lick cemetery.

"The 'Flu' Special".

What do you think of a special car being carried to and from Lebanon by many of the passenger trains for persons who go there to buy booze? And in these prohibition times, too? Well, such is the case. Some times it takes two coaches to accommodate the crowd that comes down on Nos. 22 and 24 to the "wet spot"—Lebanon. The coaches have been dubbed "The Flu Special" and the name is not a bad one. A gentleman who holds a responsible position with the L. and N. told the writer Sunday that he would wager that at least 1,500 gallons of whiskey was put on passenger train No. 21 Saturday night a week ago. There were two coaches of the booze hunters and each fellow carried one and many two grips chock full of the "flu" medicine. There is a law against taking whiskey into dry territory but in these unusual times the infraction is not noticed, it seems. The gentleman also said that there were men in the bunch who had come all the way from Tennessee and some few as far as Georgia after the whisky. In many instances they carried orders from reputable physicians that the whisky was for medicinal use and the sick ones back home must have it. In fact, it seems that the physicians around many of the coal mines prescribe a liberal use of whisky as both a preventive and cure for the epidemic, which is the worst thing that has struck this country in many years. There is very little drinking on the "special", the men in most cases behaving themselves like gentlemen.—Interior Journal.

Toot Your Horn.

In 1907 two Detroit automobile companies filed articles of association and designed medium-priced models. When they were put on sale there was very little difference in the details of construction, and their appearance was about the same. They had really been designed by the same engineer. He was originally employed by one of the concerns, but went to work for the other after completing most of the layouts, and on joining the second company he found positions for some of the technical staff who had worked for him on his former job.

Result: two cars at about the same price, equally good-looking and equally well constructed.

One of the companies is going strong yet, and the other failed in a year and a half. The second company's car never caught on with the public.

The president of the first concern was an advertising expert of national reputation, who had got into the automobile game because he saw money in it. He hardly knew a jack-shaft from a fishing pole, and had made his name by pushing the sale of labor-saving office appliances. But the nature of the product didn't matter. He understood publicity.

We are all salesmen in a sense. An office boy applying for a job is marketing his services, and the one who makes the best impression gets the job. It isn't enough to have a good commodity for sale; you must let your customer know it, and it is nothing to his detriment if you describe your product convincingly. He is not forced to buy; but it is to his disadvantage if he never learns all the merits of what you have to sell.

ville, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Noel of Buckeye and Mr. and Mrs. D. P.
Jones and children of Paint Lick.

Dr. J. A. Amon has been confined to his home for the past week with a slight attack of influenza. He hopes to be out in a few days.

Mrs. R. Zimmer has been confined to her room the past week with an attack of tonsillitis, but her many friends will be glad to know she is out again.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Brown of Berea, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hutchins of Lexington, motored down last Sunday and were guests of Rev. and Mrs. P. E. Foley.

A card from Capt. J. M. Acton says he has been transferred to Pensacola, Fla., to assist in the "flu" epidemic at that place, and asks that his paper be changed to that office.

Friends of W. G. Murphy, who has been quite ill with pneumonia, at his home in Hubble, will be glad to learn of his convalescence. Mrs. Murphy who was also quite sick, is improving.

Reports from the bedside of Dr.
J. S. Gilbert, where he has been confined for the past ten days in a base hospital at Montgomery, Ala., with a violent attack of pneumonia, says that he is slowly improving. Mrs.
Gilbert was only permitted to see him one time when it was thought that his condition was critical.

The sale of the Francis land drew a big crowd. Only one tract was sold and that was bought by Chas and Wilson Brandenburg. It adjoins the farm already owned by Messrs Brandenburg, the price paid was $135, per acre.

Frank Hester, the youngest son of Mr. Zack Hester, died Sunday a victim of Influenza. He was sick only a few days. He was 14 years old and a very bright lad and the entire community join in sympathy for Mr.
and Mrs. Hester in their bereavement. The other members of the family are ill at present.

On account of ill health I have decided to go to a milder climate until time to put in my Spring Millinery, and would advise all who want hats reasonable, to come now, as it is my intention to close out at ONCE. I also have rooms to rent, all convenients for light house-keeping.

Mrs. W. F. PARKS.

What does it matter whether we are Jews or Catholics or Protestants
—the President of the United States has asked us to work together to help the boys win the war—it's the biggest cause the world ever knew, this winning of the war, and we want the biggest sum of money that ever was given to support it—$170-500,000.

There is no peace in sight yet. To make the world safe Germany must be thoroughly licked. Millions more men are going over to do the job. To provide for their comfort, to back them up, to light home fires where-ever they go—that is what the money is for.

It's going to be easy to give, easy to go without things we want, easy not to spend a red cent except for food and shelter and clothes which will cover us.

It's going to be easy—because of that boy we miss most.

Public Sale OF LAND, STOCK AND CROPS.

Having decided to dispose of my place, known as the Drakes Creek Farm, or the George Evans place, on the Crab Orchard and Lancaster pike, 2 1-2 miles from Crab Orchard, I will sell it to the highest bidder, beginning at 10:30 A. M.,

Thursday, November 7th 1918

The place will be divided into three tracts.

TRACT NO. 1.—contains 15 2-4 acres of splendid level, fertile land. No richer land anywhere.

TRACT NO. 2.—has 62 1-2 acres, all in grass. Fine stock water, good building site, but no improvements.

TRACT NO. 3.—is the home place. On it is the splendid residence of eight rooms, two halls, porches, stock barn with room for 75 head of stock and room for feed to winter them. Cistern at door of residence. Double cribs that will hold 400 barrels of corn, garage and buggy house, combined. Hen house and concrete cellar. The place contains 143 acres of excellent land, principally level and very fertile. There are just a few acres of waste land. It will grow corn, hemp, tobacco or any other crop grown in Kentucky and will grow as much or more per acre. This place must be seen to be thoroughly appreciated. The farm will first be sold in three tracts and then as a whole and the way bringing the most money will be chosen. At the same time and place I will sell 200 barrels of No. 1 corn in 10 and 20 barrel lots. About ten tons of No. 1 clover hay, 400 shocks of fodder, one pair of work mules, one seven and the other eight years, 16 hands and fine workers; one pair of 15 1-2 hands, four-year-old mules, fine workers. Some nice mule colts. A number of cattle and a big lot of farming tools will also be sold at the same time. Terms on the land will be liberal and will be made to suit the purchaser. Lunch will be served on the grounds.

The home is close to graded school, churches, being only 2 1-2 miles from the town of Crab Orchard. The neighborhood is an ideal one and taking everything into consideration, the farm is a rare one. Persons desiring to look over the place are invited to come and do so. Prospective buyers will be shown by the undersigned.

J. B. Hutchins, Crab Orchard.

Or inquire of J. L. Hutchins, Danville, Ky.

Red Cross Influenza

Bulletin.

The following precautionary rules for the avoidance and lessening of the intensity of the epidemic of influenza, have been prepared by Dr.

Wm. F. Lincoln, advisor of the Lake Division American Red Cross, for distribution throughout the states of Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky.

Here are the rules:

1. All colds, however slight, should be treated as possible attacks of influenza. Patients affected by colds should stay at home and sterilize discharges from the nose and throat.
2. Avoid feeling or spreading fear of the disease.
3. Regulate bodily functions and keep them so.
3. Avoid crowds.
5. Avoid the breath or expelled secretions from people suffering from colds.
6. Wash out the nose and throat two or three times daily by a nasal spray or douche and by gargle with a "normal salt solution" (1-2 teaspoon salt to one glass—8 ounces—clean water).
7. All those in attendance on patients with influenza should wear masks.
8. Clothing should be warm and dry. Food simple and easily digested. Drink water freely.

Surgeon General Says Serum Is In Experi- mental Stages.

Use of vaccines in combatting or treating Spanish Influenza has not gone beyond the experimental stage so far as the United States Public Service has been able to learn. In a statement recently the Public Health Service warned the public against any of the "sure cures" being advocated for the malady, which, according to reports, is rapidly subsiding in all army camps and is showing a lessening incidence in many States among the civilian population.
"It must be remembered," said Surgeon General Blue in a statement Saturday, "that several different vaccines are now being tried. The reports so far received, however, do not permit any conclusion whatsoever regarding the efficacy of their relative merits. The Public Health Service is watching the experiments carefully, but is not urging any form of vaccine treatment.

DEFEAT WOULD HAMPER NATION SAYS PRESIDENT

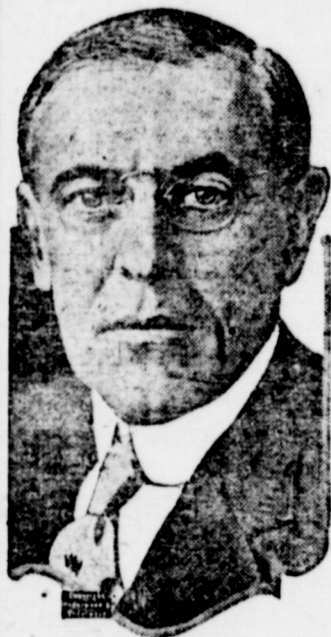

DIVIDED CONTROL WOULD SERIOUSLY INTERFERE WITH CONDUCT OF WAR.

Washington. — President Wilson issued an appeal to the people to return a Democratic Congress in the November elections if they approve of his course in this critical period.

Following is the President's appeal: "My Fellow Countrymen:

"The Congressional elections are at hand. They occur in the most critical period our country has ever faced or is likely to face in our time. If you have approved of my leadership and wish me to continue to be your unembarrassed spokesman in affairs at home and abroad, I earnestly beg that you will express yourselves unmistakably to that effect by returning a Democratic majority to both the Senate and House of Representatives.

"I am your servant and will accept your judgment without cavil, but my power to administer the great trust assigned me by the constitution would be seriously impaired should your judgment be adverse, and I must frankly tell you so because so many critical issues depend upon your verdict. No scruple of taste must in grim times like these be allowed to stand in the way of speaking the plain truth.

Divided Leadership.

"I have no thought of suggesting that any political party is paramount in matters of patriotism. I feel too deeply the sacrifices which have been made in this war by all our citizens irrespective of party affiliations to harbor such an idea. I mean only that the difficulties and delicacies of our present task are of a sort that makes it imperatively necessary that the nation should give its undivided support to the government under a unified leadership and that a Republican Congress would divide the leadership.

Unity of Command.

"The leaders of the minority in the present Congress have unquestionably been pro-war, but they have been anti-administration. At almost every turn since we entered the war they have sought to take choice of policy and the conduct of the war out of my hands and put it under the control of instrumentalities of their own choosing.

"This is no time either for divided council or for divided leadership. Unity of command is as necessary now in civil action as it is upon the field of battle. If the control of the House and the Senate should be taken away from the party now in power, an opposing majority could assume control of legislation and oblige all action to be taken amidst contest and obstruction.

Interpretation Abroad.

"The return of a Republican majority to either House of the Congress would, moreover, be interpretative on the other side of the water as a repudiation of my leadership. Spokesmen of the Republican party are urging you to elect a Republican Congress in order to back up and support the President, but even if they should in this impulse upon some credulous voters on this side of the water, they would impose on no one on the other side. It is well understood there as well as here that the Republican leaders desire not so much to support the President, as to control him.

"The people of the allied countries with whom we are associated against Germany are quite familiar with the significance of elections. They would find it very difficult to believe that the voters of the United States had so chosen to support their President by electing to the Congress a majority controlled by those who are in fact not in sympathy with the attitude and action of the administration.

"I need not tell you, my fellow-countrymen, that I am asking your support, not for my own sake or for the sake of a political party, but for the sake of the nation itself in order that its inward unity of purpose may be evident to all the world. In ordinary times divided councils can be endured without permanent hurt to the country. But these are not ordinary times.

"If in these critical days it is your wish to sustain me with undivided minds, I beg that you will say so in a way which it will not be possible to misunderstand either at home or among our associates on the other side of the sea. I submit my difficulties and my hopes to you.

"WOODROW WILSON."

That Liberty

Loan Button.

Don't toss aside your Fourth Liberty Loan button as worthless. It is far from being that.

Intrinsically it isn't valuable at all. You probably couldn't trade it in on a street car fare.

But think for a moment what it represents!

Doubtless you will never win a cross of war or any other decoration for valor in the field. You'll probably never see a front line trench.

But you did your part in putting over the top the biggest loan this old world has ever known.

You have your bonds to show for that. But one of these days the government will redeem them; take them back.

The government will never recall that button.

It's your little individual badge of honor.

Not worth anything to anyone but you.

Not really WORTH anything to you.

Save what it represents.

But Lord Harry think what that is! Keep that Button.

"Of Vital Military Value"

Says the Commander-in-Chief.

THE WHITE HOUSE,
WASHINGTON.

13 September, 1918

My dear Mr. Fosdick:

May I convey through you as Chairman of the Commission on Training Camp Activities, a very warm expression of the Government's appreciation of the splendid services rendered by the seven officially recognized volunteer organizations which are ministering to the troops at home and overseas? The agencies to which I refer are

Young Men's Christian Association
Young Women's Christian Association
National Catholic War Council
Jewish Welfare Board
American Library Association
War Camp Community Service
Salvation Army

Our soldiers overseas are fighting the battle for democracy with a spirit and a morale unexcelled in any other army. That spirit and that morale will win the war. Through the work which these seven organizations are jointly conducting America is expressing her wholehearted support of our troops in camp and in the lines, and her anxious desire that the fine edge of their training as fighting men should be maintained. The activity of these organizations, therefore, in mobilizing the home, the club, and the church behind the army is of vital military value and will be of the most essential value in effecting the result.

The united war work campaign of these societies is merely another indication of that unity of spirit as a nation that is making it possible for us to win the war. That spirit and the place which the work of these agencies has made for itself in the hearts of all of us gives me confidence to believe that the united campaign will be crowned with abundant success.

Cordially and sincerely yours,
WOODROW WILSON,

Mr. Raymond B. Fosdick,
Chairman, Commission on Training Camp Activities,
Washington, D. C.

The President has expressed what is in every American heart. As a nation we are united in the winning of this war. As a nation we stand behind our fighters eager and prepared to do for them whatever will hasten victory and make the fighter's task a little lighter.

As individuals there is little we can do. As a nation we can work wonders through the seven organizations authorized and recognized by the Government.

They come to you not as Catholics, nor as Jews nor as Protestants, not as the representatives of any creed or enterprise, but as Americans to ask that you join in this great united undertaking for God, and country and our fighters.

The President has voiced his belief that this spirit of unity will be "crowned with abundant success".

He believes it because he knows this campaign is "of vital military value" and he knows that you will leave nothing undone to win this war.

It rests with you. Think of this campaign as your sole responsibility. What you give will mean its success. You cannot leave this undertaking to others. It is YOUR campaign. In France, Americans are fighting this war as if the result depended on the way each individual fights. At home, this campaign rests with you. What will you give—decide to night—and make your share the biggest thing you ever did!

Why You Should Give Twice As Much As You Ever Gave Before.

The need is for a sum 70 per cent greater than any gift ever asked for since the world began. The Government has fixed this sum at $170,500,000.

By giving to these seven organizations all at once, the cost and effort of six additional campaigns is saved.

Unless Americans do give twice as much as ever before, our soldiers and sailors may not enjoy during 1919 their

3600 Recreation Buildings
1000 Miles of Movie Film
100 Leading Stage Stars
2000 Athletic Directors

2500 Libraries supplying 5,000,000 books
85 Hostess Houses
15,000 Big-brother "secretaries"
Millions of dollars of home comforts.

When you give double, you make sure that every fighter has the cheer and comforts of these seven organizations every step of the way from home to the front and back again. You provide him with a church, a theatre, a cheerful home, a store, a school, a club and an athletic field—and a knowledge that the folks back home are with him, heart and soul!

You have loaned your money to supply their physical needs. Now give to maintain the Morale that is winning the war!

United War Work Campaign.
